How will you get feedback from parents and families about the meeting?	We will provide surveys and/or exit slips at each meeting/event.
How do parents and families who are not able to attend receive information from the meeting?	Parents who are not able to attend are encouraged to call the school and speak with the Title I coordinator for information presented. We will offer opportunities throughout the week for parents to get a copy of the information they may have missed, in a smaller setting.

Identify partnerships that coordinate & integrate Title I and local/federal funds to provide opportunities that encourage and support parents and families in more fully participating in the education of their children and/or help support learning at home.

Title II- Professional Development	Columbia Elementary teachers, the district K-12 Parent Involvement Resource Teacher, the Title I Family Involvement Coordinator, and Educational Leadership & Professional Development staff work collaboratively to provide school staff with professional development opportunities to effectively with parents.
Title III-ESOL	Columbia Elementary teachers and staff work together with our ELL department staff to provide translations for materials and strengthen communication between non English-speaking families and staff when possible.
Title IV-Well-Rounded Education/School Safety/Educational Technology	Columbia Elementary teachers, Columbia Elementary Technology Associate and the District Office of Education Technology work together to meet the needs of students and families. We work together collaboratively to plan and implement appropriate programs, services, and resources for school staff and families, including opportunities to access and utilize FOCUS as a means of communication between school staff and families.
Title IX-Homeless	Since the number of homeless students in our county has increased significantly over the past few years, our office counselor work closely together to identify families that are in transition. These staff members and the district Homeless Liaison meet the varying needs of the identified youth and families, without duplicating services, to ensure that their needs are met.
SLRS/ESE services	In order to ensure our teachers and staff are meeting the needs of our students with IEP's or 504's, we have coordinated training opportunities for our staff. This is our third year that we are implementing an inclusion model at Columbia Elementary. An information/planning meeting was held prior to school beginning for proper ESE scheduling and services for those students.
Preschool Programs (Head Start/VPK)	Our Title I staff will invite area preschools to age appropriate parent workshops that are offered at Columbia that focus on the education of their children. Parents and their preschool children who will be attending kindergarten next year class and will be given a tour of the Columbia school facility.
SAC	Our School Advisory Committee meets monthly to discuss the needs of our school, set goals, and implement strategies at the school level.

What are the barriers for parents and families to attend workshops/events and how do you overcome these? (transportation, translation, etc)	Barriers facing families include lack of childcare and conflicting work schedule. We strive to overcome these barriers by providing transportation and by scheduling events later in the evening.
How are flexible dates and times for meetings, events and/or workshops offered? (Give examples)	Columbia will offer flexible meetings, such as meetings in morning and evening and various days as determined by our Survey. Literacy Night is offered after 5pm to accommodate parent work hours.
How do families who are unable to attend building capacity events receive information from the meetings?	If parents are unable to attend a meeting, we will make every effort to the extent practical, to work with their schedule to provide information advising those parents to contact anyone on our school's Title I team for other arrangements. If they still cannot attend, a phone conference will be offered, and materials will be sent home with the student. The Title I Annual Report can be viewed on our school website or a DVD can be checked out by parents unable to attend the actual meeting. Columbia will use Title I funds as such services relate to family involvement.
What strategies were used to increase family and community engagement in decision-making?	In order to increase family and community engagement in our decision making we utilized the Parent/District/Client Survey at SAC meetings in order to get direct input from family and community stakeholders.
