

Principal Message 3/14/24

Stevenson Families,

This week our Sixth-grade students shared their production of The Hysterical History of the Trojan War. Our students shined once again as they shared their talents with us. It's hard to believe that this was their last play. Congratulations Sixth graders on a wonderful show!

Please remember that there is no school tomorrow. Next week our students involved in Mr. Yoh's music programming will showcase their abilities at Universal Studios, our Fourth graders will participate in a study trip to St. Augustine, and all Penguins will participate in Field Day on Friday. Speaking of Field Day, Coach Dwyer could still use some Otter Pops to keep the kiddos cool. Please send some in for her if you can.

We value your feedback and would appreciate you taking a few moments to complete the family survey for us. The survey will close on March 22nd and the link to the survey is ytsurvey.org/brevardfamily24

That's it for this week. I hope you enjoy your weekend. We'll see you Monday in the car loop!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Fleeger
