Head Start teachers: work closely with their students, invite community helpers to school, share science lessons, and teach letter/sound awareness in creative and developmentally appropriate ways!

Family Advocates, critical to the success of Head Start, provide the link to wrap around services, parent education, and the achievement of family goals.

Outside play allows young children to interact with nature and enriches personal connections, language and vocabulary development.

“Summer afternoon—
summer afternoon; to me
those have always been
the two most beautiful
words in the English language.”

— Henry James

“In a completely rational society, the best of us would be teachers and the rest of us would have to settle for something else.” -Lee Iacocca
